

Do you need a social care assessment?

Are you 18 years, or older, on the autism spectrum but need support to access community services?

Are you an adult on the autism spectrum needing support to gain social, life or employment skills but your education funding is finishing or finished some time ago?

Do you have a son or daughter aged 18 years or older, who is on the autism spectrum, who needs your help to arrange a social care assessment on their behalf?

If you live in Cornwall search online- Needs Assessment Cornwall and read all the information provided. Request help for an adult online or phone 03001234131. The information is set out in clear question and answer style.

If you live in Plymouth search online – How to get adult care or support Plymouth and read all the information provided. Complete a self-assessment section online or email customerservices@plymouth.gov.uk or phone 01752 668000

If you live in Devon search online – Devon Care Needs Assessment and read all the information provided. You can use a self- help tool online. You can email csc.caredirect@devon.gov.uk or phone 03451551007